

Cider Vinegar

All the goodness of the original apple in a bottle! Apple cider vinegar has a long tradition of use as a healthy food supplement for all animals and birds. Rich in potassium, phosphorus, sodium, calcium, iron, and trace elements. This human-grade cider vinegar is made from the whole apple, not just the pulp left over after juicing. Add 10ml to each litre of drinking water to maintain overall health and vitality for all your birds.

Seaweed and Rosehip

The very best of Sea and Soil! Just add to the food, to provide an overall tonic for all birds. This is a natural way to provide a balanced blend of vitamins, trace elements such as Iodine, Iron, Sulphur, Calcium, Copper, Magnesium and Selenium along with vitamins Beta Carotene, B1, B2, B12, C, D, and E, plus 20 amino acids. This economical product is formulated using pure rosehips, and deep sea kelp (Ascophyllum nodosum).

Seaweed and Rosehip will help support and maintain a strong and healthy digestive, circulatory and nervous system. We recommend this product for helping to bring lustre and depth of colour to all plumage.

Welcome to our new catalogue for poultry, caged, and avian birds. We hope you will find exactly what you need in the following pages. Since we first started Hilton Herbs in 1989 we have supplied literally hundreds of customers with a variety of herbal products for their hens, canaries, parrots, racing pigeons, and other birds. We are now getting so many enquiries from fanciers that we have decided to create a catalogue especially you!

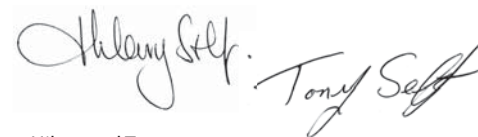

For example more and more people are keeping chickens for their own egg production. We have our own hens and know just how quickly they become part of the family, working their way into our hearts with their own quirky characters. You will want to do the best for them so they can do the best for you!

In the wild birds know instinctively how to self-select a wide variety of plants, herbs, grasses, seeds, roots and fruits to help them maintain overall good health and freedom from internal parasites.

Unfortunately our domesticated birds may not have access to these same health-giving plants. This inability to obtain fresh plants and seeds may ultimately affect the birds overall health and fitness. Add to this the stresses of breeding, showing, egg production, parasites, and moulting. It is no wonder their health may occasionally be affected.

We believe that by using the appropriate herbal supplements, in conjunction with a good diet, clean healthy housing, and freedom to exercise, we can greatly enhance the health of poultry and birds. Herbs will reconnect them to their origins, enabling them to maintain prime health as their wild cousins do.

We hope you have success using our products and that they help keep your birds in the very best condition, whatever their age or activity. We wish all our customers and their birds the very best of health and happiness. Thank you for helping us to continue 'Turning Nature into Health'.

Hilary and Tony

Please note that all the products featured in this catalogue are equally suitable for: poultry, caged, and avian birds.
